A School Resource Officer with the Bluffton Police Department was notified of an incident that took place on a school bus while en-route to Bluffton Elementary School. The School Resource Officer was advised that the mother of a four year old special needs student suspected her child was being physically abused by a School Bus Attendant later identified as Lillian Jackson.

The mother reported her child came home with bruising on the arms and legs and provided photos of the injuries to officers and investigators. Investigators then reviewed video from the school bus which shows Jackson striking the child several times over the course of the bus ride.

Based on the probable cause, Investigators obtained an arrest warrant and took Jackson into custody. Jackson did not provide investigators with an explanation as to what happened on the bus.
